22 "Sec. 11. Legislative intent

23 The legislature finds that there are serious and continuing concerns 24 regarding the combination of alcohol consumption and firearms. The 25 legislature finds that the rights of persons to bear arms, the rights of 26 persons to exercise control over their private property and the unique status 27 of spirituous liquors, all of which are matters of great concern of the 28 Constitution of the United States, require the legislature to balance the 29 various effects on public safety from the combination of spirituous liquors
30 and weaponry. The legislature determines that the affirmative posting 31 requirement in this act, which allows a limited number of liquor 32 establishments to permit pistols, provided that the owner of the

Senate Amendments to S.B. 1132

1 establishment affirmatively acts to allow it, balances all the interests of 2 the people of this state.

3 Sec. 12. Nonseverability

4 If any portion of this act is finally adjudicated invalid, the entire 5 act is void."
